J.P.Morgan

Stephen E. Parker
Managing Director
Wealth Advisor

Stephen E. Parker is a member of J.P. Morgan's national Wealth Advisory Group and is responsible for tax and estate planning strategy for the firm's Private Banking clients in the Southeast region.

Prior to joining J.P. Morgan Private Bank, Steve spent 13 years in the private practice of law and was most recently a partner in the Family Wealth Planning Department of Cohen, Pollock, Merlin and Small.

Steve is an attorney, admitted to practice in Georgia, and is a member of the American and Georgia Bar Associations. He is also a member of the Georgia Fiduciary Law Section Legislation Committee, a member of the Planned Giving Advisory Board for both Emory University and the Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta, and a Board member of the Georgia Planned Giving Council. His specific areas of expertise include wealth transfer, closely held business and international tax planning. He is a frequent lecturer on estate planning and tax topics.

Mr. Parker received a BSBA, magna cum laude, from Washington University in St. Louis (1989), and a J.D., with distinction, from Emory University School of Law (1992).